

BATTLE BORN GROWTH ESCALATOR VENTURE CAPITAL PROGRAM APPLICATION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. You agree that all information that you have provided is true and accurate and that you will indemnify Battle Born against any harm resulting from inaccuracies in your submission (as well as well as any follow-up information that you may provide).
2. Battle Born staff will share your application information with its associates, including members of its investment committee and advisory board, potential co-investment partners and other professionals, for the purposes of conducting due diligence on a potential investment. You agree that this is an acceptable use of the information.
3. Battle Born is not responsible for any information becoming public. You should not supply Battle Born with any information that you would not be comfortable disclosing in public.
4. Battle Born attempts to evaluate all applications on an equal basis, and is able to fund only a small proportion of applications. The decisions of the program manager are subject but binding. You agree that you will not seek either legal or other recourse if your application is not accepted for funding.
